I can't say enough good about Joyce and Angela and their loving care of our Olive. She is a Saint Bernard that needs lots of attention and would not do well at a "farm kennel" - she loves it at Joyce's! She is happy and tired when she comes home - a testament to the good time that she has! I've known Joyce for about 20 years and she's a good doggie sitter and all around great person! Thanks!!
